

State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION

STATEMENT OF NEED FOR EMERGENCY ACTION

In accordance with the provisions of subsection (b) of § 42-35-3 of the Rhode Island General Laws, as amended, I have approved a regulation entitled, Rules and Regulations for Non-Utility Scale Renewable Energy Projects. This regulation has been promulgated pursuant to the authority contained in the Rhode Island General Laws § 42-140-9, as amended.

This regulation is to become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

Such an effective date is necessary in view of a finding by the Executive Director of the Office of Energy Resources that any substantial delay might imperil the public health, safety, and welfare. This finding is based upon the following:

The State of Rhode Island was awarded Eight Million Three Hundred and Ninety-Five Thousand Dollars ($ 8,395,000) under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009-State Energy Program ("ARRA-SEP") to support development of non-utility scale renewable energy projects in Rhode Island. The projects are intended to create and retain jobs in Rhode Island; to realize energy cost savings; to reduce dependence on non-renewable forms of energy, especially fuels imported from other nations; to achieve environmental benefits, especially reductions in greenhouse gases; to leverage project funds and revenues; to facilitate market transformation, including especially for customer sited facilities; to provide opportunities for persons in all communities in the state to undertake non-utility scale renewable energy projects by assuring that projects from diverse renewable energy sources can be funded from program and to comply with the applicable requirements of the ARRA-SEP. These goals are essential to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the State of Rhode Island and for the benefit of the public.

Pursuant to the ARRA-SEP, the use and disbursement of said funds by the State are subject to strict time constraints. On or before March 10, 2010, the Rhode Island Office of Energy Resources ("OER") must commence disbursement of funds for non-utility scale renewable energy projects. Prior to disbursing any awards for these projects, the OER will need to promulgate rules and regulations regarding the administration and utilization of the ARRA-SEP funds. After the regulations are in effect, the OER must solicit applications for projects and review each submittal. The OER will then issue the awards and enter into contracts with each project applicant.

To complete this application and award process prior to the March 10, 2010 deadline, the first round of applications for non-utility scale renewable energy projects must be submitted on or before January 29, 2010. If the OER were to provide the notice and comment for these regulations as required by the Rhode Island Administrative Procedures Act, it would be impossible for the OER to disburse the funds by March 10, 2010. Therefore, the immediate filing of these regulations is critical to meet the ARRA deadlines.

These emergency rules and regulations are available for inspection at the Rhode Island Department of Administration, Purchasing Division, One Capitol Hill, Providence, Rhode Island and will be available on the Rhode Island Secretary of State's website: www.rules.state.ri.us/rules/

Pursuant to subsection (b) of § 42-35-3, the emergency regulation shall take effect upon filing with the Rhode Island Secretary of State and shall remain in effect as provided in said subsection. While the emergency regulation is in effect, amended regulations will be promulgated pursuant to subsection (a) of § 42-35-3.

This emergency regulation has been adopted by me on this 10 day of December, 2009.
